Please answer each question separately (a short answer of a paragraph or so in length should suffice for most of the questions), attach a current resume, and return to LSRJ membership committee chair Ashley Gorski, at ashley.gorski@gmail.com.

Application deadline is 5:00 pm PST / 7:00 pm CST / 8:00 pm EST on Friday, March 19, 2010.

Interviews will be held in early April—if you have any major time conflicts during this period (e.g., travel plans) please let us know in your application.

1. Please describe your experience(s) with Law Students for Reproductive Justice (LSRJ) and your past and present involvement in reproductive health/rights/justice work.
2. What role do you think LSRJ plays or should play in legal education?
3. What do you think is the most important role of a Board of Directors for a small and growing nonprofit organization such as LSRJ?
4. LSRJ is dedicated to a reproductive justice framework that centralizes issues of access and equity for marginalized groups, such as immigrants, people of color, LGBTQ folks, minors, and people who are alternately-abled. What experience, if any, do you have working with marginalized populations? What have you learned from these experiences?

Application for Appointment Board of Directors

5. How can you add to the diversity and strength of the Board of Directors?

6. What experience, if any, have you had with fundraising and/or development?

7. Do you have any background in activism or advocacy that you have not previously mentioned in other answers?

8. Why do you want to be on the Board of Directors? What do you hope to gain from the experience and what, if anything, not mentioned elsewhere do you believe you will contribute to it?

9. Please list other commitments (e.g., organizations, positions, journals, externships, clinics) you have during the school year and the approximate amount of time you will dedicate to them each week.

10. Is there anything else we should know about you that would be helpful? (Please do not feel obligated to fill this space.)
