

TITLE	YEAR	SUMMARY	TOPIC(S)
Fast Times at Ridgemont High	1982	Movie about a group of teenagers in Southern California. One girl, Stacy, gets pregnant and decides to have an abortion.	Abortion
La operación	1982	This documentary highlights the social policy of female sterilization in Puerto Rico. This island has the highest rate of sterilization in the world. Over one-third of its women have undergone what is commonly referred to as "La operación" (The Operation). García incorporates interviews with working-class and middle-class women of differing racial and ethnic backgrounds who have undergone this procedure.	Forced sterilization
Dirty Dancing	1987	Johnny's dance partner Penny (Cynthia Rhodes) becomes pregnant by waiter Robbie and risks losing her job as a professional dancer, and therefore her livelihood, if she the baby. Penny gets a loan to pay for an illegal abortion which ends up being botched and leaving her in agonizing pain. A real doctor is called in to the emergency situation to save Penny's life.	Abortion
Une Affaire de femmes (Story of Women)	1988	During World War II, in occupied France, a woman supports her family by performing abortions.	Abortion
Just Another Girl on the IRT	1992	High school student Chantel Mitchell (Ariyan A. Johnson) dreams of escaping her tough, poor Brooklyn neighborhood. What she wants most is to go to college and become a doctor. Determined not to follow the dead-end path so many of her friends have taken, Chantel is smart, confident and has the will to accomplish anything and everything ... until she discovers she's pregnant.	Teen Pregnancy
Motherless: A Legacy of Loss from Illegal Abortion	1992	A documentary with stories of people who, as children, lost their mothers to complications from illegal abortions.	Abortion; Historical
Never Go Back: The Threat to Legalized Abortion	1992	A 15-minute educational video outlining the political impact of Supreme Court nominees and Senate filibusters.	Abortion
Toward Intimacy	1992	Women with disabilities are working towards full participation in all areas of life. Toward Intimacy is a cross-disability affirmation of the right of women with disabilities to seek, develop and sustain intimate relationships with the partners of their choice. In this moving one-hour film, four disabled women from across Canada share their personal experiences, with particular emphasis on sexuality, self-esteem, stereotyping, and parenting.	Women, disabilities, reproductive health
When Abortion Was Illegal: Untold Stories	1992	Through testimonials, looks at the consequences for women who became pregnant before abortion was legalized.	Abortion
Hell's Angel	1994	Looks at Mother Teresa's campaigns against contraception and abortion and her ties to right-wing leaders.	Abortion
From Danger to Dignity: The Fight for Safe Abortion	1995	The Fight for Safe Abortion weaves together two parallel stories: the evolution of underground networks that helped women find safe abortions outside the law, and the intensive efforts by activists and legislators to decriminalize abortion through legislative and judicial channels.	Abortion
From the Back-Alleys to the Supreme Court & Beyond	1995	This Academy-Award nominated film is a trilogy of three short films: (1) When Abortion Was Illegal: Untold Stories; (2) From Danger to Dignity: The Fight for Safe Abortion; and (3) The Fragile Promise of Choice: Abortion in the U.S. Today	Abortion

Jane: An Abortion Service	1995	"Jane" was a women's health group in Chicago which performed safe abortions between 1969 and 1973, while the procedure was still illegal.	Abortion; Historical
Leona's Sister Gerri	1995	The story behind an iconic photograph of an unnamed woman lying dead from an illegal abortion.	Abortion
Citizen Ruth	1996	A movie (comedy) about a woman who huffs paint, gets pregnant, and then everyone has an opinion on what she should do.	Abortion
Fragile Promise of Choice: Abortion in the United States Today	1996	This video examines the impact of lack of access and affordability, clinic harassment and violence, religious issues, and restrictive legislation on reproductive rights in America.	Abortion; Historical
If These Walls Could Talk	1996	This film follows the stories of three women in different time periods, each deciding whether or not to have an abortion. The segments are set in 1952, 1974, and 1996, and each focus on the social attitudes toward abortion dominant at the time.	Abortion
Legislating a Tragedy	1996	Women who have had late-term abortions share their stories in the context of so-called "partial-birth abortion" bans.	Abortion
Sleepers	1996	A legal drama that focuses on four childhood friends that grew up in Hell's Kitchen in New York City during the 1960's. Their lives forever change when they nearly kill a man after pulling a prank on a hotdog vendor. As punishment, they are sentenced to serve time at the Wilkinson Home for Boys in upstate New York. There, the boys are systematically beaten, abused, and raped by guards. Fourteen years later, the boys forge a plan, ultimately using the justice system to get even.	Sexual Abuse
The Sterilization of Leilani Muir	1996	Documentary about a woman who was coercively sterilized by the Canadian government on the grounds that she was a "mental defective" and her attempt to get justice.	Coercive sterilization
I Witness: Shot Down in Pensacola	1998	This documentary is about a community's tensions surrounding abortion and the infamous story of two doctors and a clinic escort who were murdered in front of a family planning facility in Florida.	Anti-Choice Protesting; Clinic Violence
O Adolescente e a Arte Pelos Direitos Humanos (Adolescents and the Cultural Arts for Citizenship)	1998	Teens address topics such as family, sexuality, and HIV/AIDS through artistic expression.	International
Boys Don't Cry	1999	This award-winning movie tells the tragic story of Brandon Teena. Born Teena Brandon, his life as a young man is cut short when his friends find out his secret. The film is based on actual events.	LGBTQIQ
Breaking the Silence: Issues in Lesbian Health Care	1999	An educational video for health care providers, covering topics from establishing a good doctor-patient relationship to assisted reproductive technology and increased health risks.	LGBTQIQ
Cider House Rules, the	1999	This movie, based on the John Irving novel of the same name, centers around a young man raised in a Maine orphanage run by a doctor who performs safe but illegal abortions.	Abortion; Historical

Things You Can Tell By Looking At Her	1999	Rebecca (Holly Hunter) is a 39 year old bank manager who is having an affair with a married man. She discovers she is pregnant and explains she miscalculated her ovulation cycle at a time she didn't have access to her usual contraception. Rebecca's gynecologist warns it is probably the last opportunity she will get to have a baby at her age. Rebecca schedules an abortion.	Abortion
Dark Days	2000	A cinematic portrait of the homeless population who live permanently in the underground tunnels of New York City.	Poverty, inequality
Generation 2000: Changing Girls' Realities	2000	Documents the challenges faced by girls in Africa and the work of three Nigerian women's organizations designed to promote health, education, and opportunities for girls. (International Women's Health Coalition)	International
High Fidelity	2000	Rob (John Cusack) chastises his girlfriend Laura (Iben Hjejle) for having an abortion without his knowledge. Rob cheated on Laura at the time she found out she was pregnant and she learned of the infidelity before she got to tell him. Laura terminates the pregnancy without consulting Rob because their relationship is falling apart. When Laura later confesses about her abortion to Rob he feels guilty and responds angrily.	Abortion
Is it a Boy or a Girl?	2000	This documentary, which aired on the Discovery Channel touches on the difficulties that intersex people face. This video is available for purchase at http://www.isna.org/videos/boy_or_girl .	Intersex
Live Free or Die	2000	A doctor fights to prevent a hospital merger that will end his ability to provide abortion services, facing down anti-choice protesters at his door and his own home town.	Abortion, Anti-Choice Protesting
On Hostile Ground	2000	In October 1998, a man carrying a rifle assassinated Dr. Barnett Slepian in his home. This incident and the many like it that followed have altered the American perception of anti-abortion violence. This film tries to discover how such events affect abortion providers in their personal and professional lives.	Anti-Choice Protesting; Clinic Violence
Soldiers in the Army of God	2000	A disturbing documentary exposing the extremist anti-choice movement and their devotion to a holy war against abortion.	Religion; Anti-Choice Protesting
XX/XY: A Short Documentary About Intersex	2000	This is a very short documentary about two individuals who are born intersex. There is a link online to view this documentary at: http://www.isna.org/videos/xxxy .	Intersex
Children Underground	2001	When Romanian dictator Nicolae Ceaucescu outlawed the use of contraceptives and encouraged his subjects to have more children in a bid to increase his nation's population, his campaign had a terrible and dangerous side effect -- thousands of children were born to broken or dysfunctional families in a nation mired in political and economic instability, resulting in a large and rapidly growing population of homeless children in the city of Bucharest, with their numbers estimated at over 20,000. Children Underground is a documentary that explores this ongoing tragedy, offering a view of the larger problem and taking a closer look at the lives of five children living on the streets of Bucharest.	International, human rights, reproductive health

Forgotten Children: The Legacy of Poverty and AIDS in Africa	2001	A documentary of a day in the lives of street children in Zambia.	International; HIV/AIDS
Great Betrayal	2001	Society, church, school, family, and boyfriend all reject an ambitious teen who gets pregnant while trying to finish her education.	Teen Pregnancy
Making Your Choice: A Woman's Guide to Medical Abortion	2001	This video, aimed at women considering a medical abortion, covers medical v. surgical abortions, options for pregnancy, medications used, and what to expect during the abortion.	Abortion
Riding in Cars With Boys	2001	Beverly (Drew Barrymore) is a 15 year old girl in the 1960s who naively has sex with an adorable no-hoper called Ray out of gratitude for him fighting in her honor. When Beverly discovers she is pregnant she confides in her best friend (who later gets pregnant herself) and then discusses it with Ray. In a brief moment Beverly reveals she has heard of abortion but doesn't think it is an option because she has no money and you can only get them in Puerto Rico. Though Ray is willing to marry her, Beverly is reluctant to have a baby, even going so far as throwing herself down the stairs to try to induce a miscarriage.	Teen pregnancy/Abortion
Southern Comfort	2001	This documentary chronicles the last year of Robert Eads life, a transgender individual who died of cervical cancer, after being denied treatment by over 2 dozen doctors.	Transgender, Health care discrimination
Tumaini: Stories of Hope and Challenge	2001	Women struggle to escape prostitution in Kenya.	International
Bus 174	2000	Documentary depicts what happened in Rio de Janeiro on June 12th 2000, when bus 174 was taken by an armed young man, threatening to shoot all the passengers. Transmitted live on all Brazilian TV networks, this shocking and tragic-ending event became one of violence's most shocking portraits, and one of the scariest examples of police incompetence and abuse in recent years.	International; human rights
Globalize This! Women's Rights in Development	2002	This documentary looks at globalization and associated challenges to women's rights activists.	International
The Magdalene Sisters	2002	Women suffer abuse in a restrictive "sisterhood asylum" where they have been sent because of their sinful behavior, such as flirting, being raped, or having a child out of wedlock.	Religion
Roe v. Wade 30 Years later: How Have Abortion Practices, Policy, Politics, and Public Opinion Changed	2002	A panel discussion on changing abortion rates, politics, and profiles of patients.	Abortion
Speaking Out: Women, AIDS, and Hope in Mali	2002	Three women attend an HIV/AIDS support project in Mali, and risk ostracism and condemnation from their families by going public with their HIV-positive status.	International; HIV/AIDS
Basta! Women Say No to Violence	2003	(In Spanish; English subtitles) Survivors talk about the impact of gender-motivated violence on their health and well-being and what support they would like to see from health-care providers and communities for women in their places. Available at www.ipppfwhr.org (International Planned Parenthood Federation.)	International; Violence against Women
In a Just World: Abortion, Contraception, and World Religion	2003	This documentary examines how major religions treat women's reproductive rights.	Abortion; Religion
Legal but Out of Reach: Six Women's Abortion Stories	2003	A documentary featuring six poor women's struggles to receive abortion care.	Abortion

Love, Labor, Loss: A Documentary Film on Obstetric Fistula in Niger	2003	This film began as an organizing campaign in 2003 to raise awareness of the difficulties in accessing health care, and the development of obstetric fistula when adequate medical care is not available to a woman in labor.	Maternal Mortality/Morbidity
Soldier's Girl	2003	Based on the life of Private Barry Winchell, his transsexual girlfriend, their beautiful love story, and his tragic death.	Transgender
The Day My God Died	2003	The film focuses on the stories of several Nepalese girls who were trafficked into prostitution as children.	trafficking
Voices of Choice: Physicians Who Provided Abortions Before Roe v. Wade	2003	Doctors relate their experiences pre-Roe.	Abortion; Historical
Born Into Brothels	2004	An Academy Award winner for Best Feature Documentary, Born into Brothels tells the amazing story of several children in the red light district of Calcutta. It is a stirring look into prostitution, sex trafficking and the effect growing up in a Red Light District can have on a child.	Trafficking
Freedom to Marry	2004	This documentary focuses on same-sex marriages in San Francisco and Mayor Gavin Newsome's act of civil disobedience that led to the groundbreaking California Supreme Court Ruling, In Re Marriages.	LGBTQIQ
The Future of Food	2004	This documentary offers an in-depth investigation into the disturbing truth behind the unlabeled, patented, genetically engineered foods that have quietly filled grocery store shelves for the past decade.	Environmental, reproductive health
Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness	2004	An award-winning, short documentary on the fragility of choice.	Abortion
Motherhood by Choice, Not Chance	2004	The film examines the struggle for the reproductive rights of women in America; it includes intimate interviews with those people involved in legalizing the right to have an abortion.	Abortion
Palindromes	2004	As a teen, while Aviva has no interest in sex, she eagerly loses her virginity to Judah (Robert Agri), the son of a family friend in hopes of getting pregnant. She does, but her mother insists that she have an abortion. Worse yet, due to a complication during the procedure, the doctor is forced to perform a hysterectomy.	Abortion
Saved	2004	When Mary (Jena Malone), a devout senior at a Christian high school, accidentally gets pregnant, she starts to see her peers and her faith in a whole new way in this darkly comic coming-of-age story that was produced by R.E.M. front man Michael Stipe. Pop star Mandy Moore co-stars as Mary's friend Hilary Faye, a Fundamentalist Christian who fronts their all-girl group Christian Jewels with blind faith and fabulous vocals.	Teen Pregnancy
Svetlana's Journey	2004	A gripping true story about a 13 year old Bulgarian girl sold into prostitution. http://www.svtelanasijourney.com	Trafficking
Tying the Knot	2004	A look at the debate over same sex marriage in the USA. The reasons behind it are illustrated with real life couples that have run afoul of current laws despite varying levels of planning. Also, the reasons against it are debunked by proponents.	LGBTQ, human rights
Abortion Diaries	2005	Twelve diverse women share their experiences with abortion.	Abortion
Brokeback Mountain	2005	The story of two Rocky Mountain cowboys who fall in love.	LGBTQ

I Had an Abortion	2005	Sincere documentary, candidly interviewing 10 women who had abortions. The film presents the women chronologically, from illegal abortions as early as the 1930s to an 18 year old Catholic girl today, and documents how changing societal pressures have affected women's choices and experiences. This film shows the human face of the women that are often forgotten in the debate.	Abortion
Last Abortion Clinic	2005	This Frontline episode relates how anti-choice activists in states such as Mississippi have effectively eliminated clinic and physician access through restrictive legislation and a focus on local political battles.	Abortion
Memoirs of a Geisha	2005	This film contains several story lines and themes of women being sold as property in marriages and businesses, as well as forced prostitution and child labor and sex trafficking. It is an interesting study in how a cultural lens can shape what is considered exploitation by both the exploiters and the victims.	Trafficking
Mississippi Abortion Clinic	2005	Documents the barriers faced by women seeking abortion services at the last abortion clinic in Mississippi.	Abortion
Out in the Heartland	2005	This documentary looks at how anti-gay constitutional amendments impact families' daily lives.	LGBTQ
Rosita	2005	A documentary about nine-year-old Nicaraguan girl's struggle to obtain a legal abortion when she becomes pregnant after a rape.	Abortion, International
SpeakOut: I Had an Abortion	2005	Ten women (among them Gloria Steinem) speak out about their experiences with abortion over 70 years.	Abortion
The Education of Shelby Knox	2005	Small-town Texas teenager Shelby Knox becomes an advocate for sex education (and the local media's so-called "Sex Ed Girl") when she tries to improve the county's sky-high teen pregnancy rate by challenging her high school's policy of teaching abstinence.	Teen Pregnancy
Transamerica	2005	Felicity Huffman plays a conservative transgender woman who discovers she once fathered a son.	Transgender
Transparent	2005	Documents the experiences of nineteen transgender men who have given birth and raised their biological children.	Transgender
Vera Drake	2005	Set in 1950s London a devoted wife and mother, Vera (Imelda Staunton) works as a house cleaner, and secretly performs back-room abortions. The film focuses on issues related to social class, because at the time, although abortion was illegal, upper-class women could obtain abortions if they obtained costly psychiatrists' opinions that they were unfit for pregnancy.	Abortion
Wal-Mart: The High Cost of Low Price	2005	This documentary takes the viewer on a deeply personal journey into the everyday lives of families struggling to fight Goliath. From a family business owner in the Midwest to a preacher in California, from workers in Florida to a poet in Mexico, dozens of film crews on three continents bring the intensely personal stories of an assault on families and American values.	Human rights, labor conditions, worker's rights
Abstinence Comes to Albuquerque	2006	This film documents the controversy over abstinence-only education in Albuquerque public schools and the opinions on both sides.	Abstinence-Only Education

Access to Sexual and Reproductive Health: A Matter of Social Justice	2006	(Mostly in Spanish, with English subtitles) A documentary about how Latino community organizations in Los Angeles, CA have integrated reproductive rights into their work.	Community Organizing
Cargo Innocence Lost	2006	A Docudrama about commercial sex trafficking in the United States http://www.cargoinnocencelost.com	Trafficking
Cruel and Unusual	2006	Imagine being a woman in a men's prison. For many individuals, this is a grim reality because the U.S. prison system decides where to place inmates based on their genitalia, not their gender identity. This award-winning documentary makes an unflinching examination of transgender women in men's prisons.	Transgender
Jesus Camp	2006	Documents how children as young as 6 are recruited and indoctrinated as "Christian soldiers" in "God's army" to "take back America for Christ."	Religion
Lake Of Fire	2006	Graphic 2.5 hour documentary about abortion in America with footage spanning 15 years. This film covers all of the pro-life advocates, the murders of doctors and bombings of clinics, footage of actual abortions, and even an interview with the real-life 'Roe' from Roe v. Wade.	Abortion
Road to Guantanamo	2006	The terrifying first-hand account of three British citizens who were held for two years without charges in the American military prison at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. Known as the "Tipton Three," in reference to their home town in Britain, the three were eventually returned to Britain and released, still having had no formal charges ever made against them at any time during their ordeal.	International, human rights
Motherland Afghanistan	2006	In Afghanistan, one in seven women giving birth will die in the process, one of the highest maternal mortality rates in the world. Afghan American filmmaker Sedika Mojadidi follows her father, an OB/GYN, as he struggles to make a difference, first at Kabul's renamed Laura Bush Maternity Ward and then in an isolated provincial hospital, where patients often travel for days to get treatment.	Maternal Mortality
The Defenders: A History of the Birth Control Movement in Wisconsin	2006	Documentary about the history of birth control.	Contraception
When the Levees Broke	2006	In August 2005, the American city of New Orleans was struck by the powerful Hurricane Katrina. This film covers that disastrous series of events that devastated the city and its people. Furthermore, the gross incompetence of the various governments and the powerful from the local to the federal level is examined to show how the poor and underprivileged of New Orleans were mistreated in this grand calamity and still ignored today.	Human rights, inequality, poverty
4 Months, 3 Weeks, and 2 Days	2007	Foreign film which tells the story of two young female roommates trying to arrange a late term abortion in Romania during the communist regime of the late 1980s. The film takes place during the course of one day in a dangerous repressive environment where all contraception was banned and reproduction was compulsory.	Abortion
Aborto Sin Pena (Abortion Without Shame)	2007	(In Spanish; English subtitles) Three Mexican women from different cultural backgrounds talk about choosing to terminate a pregnancy.	Abortion

Abstaining from Reality: U.S. Restrictions on HIV Prevention	2007	This short documentary takes a critical look at PEPFAR's abstinence-only focus and how it fails to give women the opportunity to make their own informed decisions.	International; HIV/AIDS; Abstinence-Only Education
Demand	2007	DEMAND is an excellent film which centers around investigative footage of sex traffickers, pimps and johns. It tells the story of the "marketplace of exploitation" in four countries. Plus, it's relatively short and you can watch it online.	Trafficking
Fall From Grace	2007	For years, the Rev. Fred Phelps and his Westboro Baptist Church have preached a message of intolerance and hatred, aimed at homosexuals. This compelling documentary shines a spotlight on Phelps and his followers, widely condemned as a hate group. K. Ryan Jones's debut takes a hard look at a church that claims that everything from the poor economy to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks can be tied to God's wrath over so-called sexual deviance.	Religion, anti-choice protesting
For the Bible Tells Me So	2007	An exploration of the intersection between religion and homosexuality in the U.S. and how the religious right has used its interpretation of the Bible to stigmatize the gay community.	Religion, LGBTQ
Holly	2007	Shot on location in the brothels and alleyways of Phnom Penh, "Holly" opens your eyes to the seedy world of sex trafficking in Cambodia. The film follows Holly (Thuy Nguyen) a 12 year old Vietnamese girl, sold by her parents, and now highly valued for her virginity. By chance card shark and American expat (Ron Livingston) and Holly meet and he resolves to save her from a horrific fate.	Trafficking
Juno	2007	Juno MacGuff (Ellen Page) is a 16 year old high school girl who has sex with her best friend and admirer Bleeker (Michael Cera) and soon discovers she is pregnant. Juno's first instinct is to visit an abortion clinic but she is quickly deterred by the nonchalant attitude of the receptionist and a lone pro-life protester (a girl from her school) who informs her that her baby has fingernails. Juno decides to go through with the pregnancy and give her baby up for adoption to a rich couple.	Teen Pregnancy
Like a Ship in the Night	2007	Irish women plan journeys across the sea to England for abortions, which are illegal in Ireland.	Abortion, International
Knocked Up	2007	A drunken, one-night stand between two strangers in their early 20's, who have little in common, results in an unplanned pregnancy. Despite persuasion from her mother, the woman decides not to have an abortion, and to try to make the rocky relationship between the two work.	Unplanned pregnancy/abortion
Not For Sale: The Documentary	2007	This film is based on the book of the same name and covers the modern-day abolitionist movement. The film both exposes the terrors of human trafficking and inspires hope through the stories and work of contemporary activists.	Trafficking
Red Without Blue	2007	The intimate bond between two identical twin brothers is challenged when one decides to transition from male to female; this is the story of their evolving relationship, and the resurrection of their family from a darker past.	LGBTQ
Silent Choices	2007	The intersection of race and reproductive justice throughout the history of abortion rights.	Abortion

Taxi to the Dark Side	2007	An in-depth look at the torture practices of the United States in Afghanistan, Iraq and Guantanamo Bay, focusing on an innocent taxi driver in Afghanistan who was tortured and killed in 2002.	Human rights, international
Trade	2007	Film about two different girls from very different backgrounds who are both sold into prostitution and the sex slave industry. For more information and to view a trailer go to: http://movies.yahoo.com/movie/1809420398/info	Trafficking
Unborn in the USA: Inside the War on Abortion	2007	This documentary reveals the inner workings of anti-choice groups.	Abortion
Very Young Girls	2007	Very Young Girls will make you very uncomfortable, as it focuses on American children in prostitution in America. Through the eyes of several women who have since escaped, we see the ways pimps and child sex traffickers lure and entice children into their "stables," and the tactics they use to keep them there.	Trafficking
We Can Do Better: The New 3Rs in Oregon--and Beyond	2007	Oregon's new 3 Rs are Rights, Respect, and Responsibility. This film documents the development of this social change initiative and its success in diverse communities throughout the state.	Community Organizing
XXY	2007	This film from Argentina tells the story of a 15-year-old intersex teenager who explores her sexuality, deals with the physical effects of having both male and female genitalia, and grapples with the decision to have surgery and resume taking medications to suppress her masculine features.	Intersex
Abortion Democracy: Poland/South Africa	2008	Documentary looking at changes in abortion laws in Poland and South Africa since the 90s and how other factors influence the availability of abortion besides its legal status.	Abortion
Abortion: The Choice	2008	Documentary about the experience of a woman having an abortion at a clinic in London.	Abortion, Contraception, Politics
All of Us	2008	Documentary about a young doctor in the South Bronx who embarks on a research project to find out why black women are being infected with the HIV virus at an alarming rate. Dr. Mehret Mandefro takes us into the lives of two of her female patients, Chevelle and Tara, as they identify and struggle with the social factors that put them at risk. Her current boyfriend is pressuring her for sex even though she is undergoing a series of invasive surgeries for cervical cancer. Mehret expands her research to include women across boundaries of race, class and country further exploring the power imbalance in the bedroom.	AIDS/HIV, Gender Roles
Call + Response	2008	This film brings together a star-studded musical cast to examine the issue of modern-day slavery and how we should be and are responding when called to. The film is powerful, and the music is on the amazing side of awesome.	Trafficking
Middle of Everywhere	2008	This documentary explores the complex opinions of the people of South Dakota after House Bill 1215, which could have made South Dakota the first state to restrict most forms of abortion since Roe v. Wade, fails to pass in a population that is mainly conservative and anti-abortion.	Abortion

Pregnant Man	2008	Documentary about Thomas, a female-to-male transsexual who decided to become pregnant through artificial insemination when his wife was unable to become pregnant herself. Looks at the hostility they experienced from many people.	ART, Transgender
Revolutionary Road	2008	Based on the novel by Richard Yates, the film examines the domestic life of a young suburban couple and an unexpected pregnancy's effect on their plans to break free from the monotony of married life.	Abortion
Slumdog Millionaire	2008	While it's more about love, India, corruption and love again, child trafficking features prominently in Slumdog Millionaire. The plight of street children trafficked for begging in India fits as seamlessly into the film as the children themselves do into the landscape of Mumbai. It's not an activist film, but it has a true activist heart.	Trafficking
Standard Operating Procedure	2008	Errol Morris examines the incidents of abuse and torture of suspected terrorists at the hands of U.S. forces at the Abu Ghraib prison.	Human rights, international
Taken	2008	Drama about a former CIA officer who must rely on his old skills in order to track down his estranged daughter who has been kidnapped by the Albanian sex trade while traveling in France.	Trafficking
The Stoning of Soraya M.	2008	An American drama adapted from French-Iranian journalist Freidoune Sahebjam's 1990 book La Femme Lapidee, based on a true story. When Soraya wouldn't grant her abusive husband, Ali, a divorce in order to remarry a 14-year-old, he starts a rumor that Soraya was unfaithful. Ali knows that if Soraya is dead, he will be able to remarry and also avoid paying child support.	International Women's Rights, DV/IPV
House of Numbers	2008	Although AIDS has been front-page news for over 28 years, it is barely understood. The HIV/AIDS story is being rewritten, and this is the first film to present the uncensored POVs of virtually all the major players -- in their own settings, in their own words. It rocks the foundation upon which all conventional wisdom regarding HIV/AIDS is based.	HIV/AIDS
Crude	2009	The story of lawsuit by tens of thousands of Ecuadorans against Chevron over contamination of the Ecuadorean Amazon.	Human rights, international, environmental, reproductive health
Esmeralda: A Transgender Detainee Speaks Out	2009	Courage comes in many different forms. For Esmeralda, a transgender asylum seeker from Mexico, who faced horrific circumstances in immigration detention, it came in the form of seeking justice. Kept in a segregated cell with other transgender detainees, Esmeralda never realized that her experience in detention would match the trauma of discrimination she had faced back home. But her story is also one of hope for change.	LGBTQ; international
Last Summer of La Boyita	2009	This film is a coming-of-age story about a young girl's interaction with her childhood playmate, a shy, withdrawn ranch hand's son who has both male and female genitalia.	Intersex

Moms Living Clean	2009	This documentary takes you through three years in the lives of six women in an innovative substance abuse program, working to change their lives while facing drug laws that dehumanize mothers and take away their children.	Motherhood/drug laws
Not Yet Rain	2009	This film shares the stories of women in Ethiopia and how abortion has touched their lives. Some discuss the struggles faced in trying to obtain a safe abortion.	Abortion Access/Africa
Sin By Silence	2009	From behind prison walls, SIN BY SILENCE reveals the lives of extraordinary women who advocate for a future free from domestic violence. Inside the California Institution for Women, the first inmate-initiated and led group in the U.S. prison system, shatters the misconceptions of domestic violence. Against the system and against the odds, the women of Convicted Women Against Abuse have risen to expose the stigma of the cycle of domestic violence. Through their stories of terror and hope, the viewer can begin to understand the cycle of violence, the signs of an abuser, and how each and every one of us is responsible for changing the tragedy of domestic violence.	DV/IPV
12th and Delaware	2010	This documentary shines a light on the proliferation of Crisis Pregnancy Centers (CPCs) that advertise as if they are abortion clinics to lure in women who are seeking pregnancy termination and coerce them to continue their pregnancies through half-truths and lies. The producers have captured an unscripted look at a CPC and how the women are treated there, as well as an actual abortion clinic across the street and the services women are provided with there.	Crisis Pregnancy Centers
Daddy I Do	2010	The Purity Ball symbolizes a father's protection of his daughter's virginity, but how does is this reflected in the choices she makes, her understanding of her sexuality, and knowing her worth as a woman? This documentary examines the effects of Abstinence-Only Programs versus Comprehensive Sex Education in schools and what society can do to help address teen pregnancies, abortions, and STDS, as well as poverty and sexual abuse.	Abstinence-Only Sex Education
Le Ventre des Femmes (A Woman's Womb)	2010	Documents the sterilization of thousands of Peruvian men and women between 1995 and 2000.	Coercive sterilization
Eggsploitation	2011	The infertility industry in the United States has grown to a multi-billion dollar business. What is its main commodity? Human eggs. Young women all over the world are solicited by ads—via college campus bulletin boards, social media, online classifieds—offering up to $100,000 for their “donated” eggs, to “help make someone’s dream come true.” Eggsploitation spotlights the booming business of human eggs told through the tragic and revealing stories of real women who became involved and whose lives have been changed forever.	Bioethics, reproductive health